

Chapter One: A Traveler's Memo

My contribution as a regular columnist for Al-Qabas newspaper started with the publication of my seventh article, “The Airplane.” In this article and the two that followed, I took the opportunity to narrate my travels in Canada. Labeling every article with the same headline, "A Traveler's Memo," I added a subtitle related to the topic of the article.

The title of this series of articles, “A Traveler’s Memo,” grabbed even my own attention and became dear to my heart because of how much I simply love to travel. I’ve been to so many different countries for my studies, business, charity,
